AN

ACT TO INCORPORATE TRINITY COLLEGE.

[Passed 2nd August, 1851]

WHEREAS, it has been represented to the Legislature of this Province that divers inhabitants of the said Province have used their efforts to establish a College in connexion with the United Church of England and Ireland, in the City of Toronto, under the style and title of Trinity College, and are engaged in erecting and establishing the same : And whereas, it would tend greatly to advance and extend the usefulness of the said College, and to promote the purpose for which it was established, that it should be incorporated : Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that there shall be, and there is hereby constituted and established at the City of Toronto a body politic and corporate, under the name of Trinity College : which Corporation shall consist of—Firstly, The Lord Bishop of Toronto, or in case of the division of the said Diocese, then the Bishops of any Dioceses into which the Diocese of Toronto may hereafter be divided : Secondly, The Trustees of the said Trinity College : and Thirdly, the College Council of the said Trinity College : not less than three in number : which said Trustees, and the members of the said College Council shall be named, in the first instance, by the Lord Bishop of Toronto, and shall, in the event of their death, removal from the Province, dismissal from office, or resignation, be replaced by other persons to be named in like manner, or in such other manner as may from time to time be directed by any statute of the said College to be passed for that purpose, and so on continually for ever.

II. And be it enacted, That such Corporation shall have perpetual succession, and may have a common seal, with power to change, alter, break, and renew the same, when and as often as they shall think proper ; and the said Corporation may, under the same name, contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, prosecute and be prosecuted, in all courts and places whatsoever in this Province, and shall have full power to make and establish such and so many rules, orders and regulations (not being contrary to the laws of the country or this Act) as they shall deem useful or necessary, as well concerning the system of education in, as for the conduct and government of, the said College, and of a Preparatory School connected with or dependent on the same, and of the Corporation thereof, and for the superintendence, advantage, and improvement of all the property, moveable or immoveable, belonging to, or which shall hereafter belong to, the said Corporation ; and shall have power to take, under any legal title whatsoever, and to hold for the said College, without any further authority, license, or letters of mortmain, all land and property, moveable and immoveable, which may hereafter, be sold ceded, exchanged, given, bequeathed, or granted to the said Corporation, or to sell, alienate, convey, let, or lease the same, if need be : Provided that the total yearly revenue from the property so acquired shall not at any time exceed the sum of Five Thousand Pounds currency : And the said Corporation shall further have the right of appointing an Attorney or Attorneys for the management of its affairs, and all other rights necessarily incident to a body corporate : Provided always, that no rule, order, or regulation, which shall be made and established by the said Corporation in manner aforesaid, shall be of any force or effect, until the same shall have been sanctioned and confirmed by the said Lord Bishop, or Bishops, as aforesaid.

III. And be it enacted, That all the property which shall at any time belong to the said Corporation, as well as the revenues thereof, shall at all times be exclusively applied and appropriated to the advancement of education in the said College, or a Preparatory School, connected with or dependent on the same, and to no other object, institution, or establishment whatever.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Corporation, at all times when they may be called upon so to do by the Governor of this Province, to render an account in writing of their property, in which shall be set forth in particular the income by them derived from property held under this Act, and the source from which the same has been derived, also the number of members of the said Corporation, the number of teachers employed in the various branches of instruction, the number of scholars under instruction, and the course of instruction pursued.

V. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be considered a Public Act, by all Judges, Justices of the Peace, and Officers of Justice, and by all other persons whomsoever, and shall be judicially taken notice of, without being specially pleaded.

VI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to weaken, diminish, or extinguish, the rights and privileges of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, nor of any other person or persons, body politic or corporate, excepting only such rights as are hereby expressly altered or extinguished.

ROYAL CHARTER OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith. To all to whom these presents shall come.

GREETING :

WHEREAS by an Act passed by the Legislature of our Province of Canada, in the fifteenth year of our Reign, intituled, "An Act to incorporate Trinity College," there was constituted and established in the City of Toronto, within the Diocese of Toronto, in our said Province of Canada, a body corporate and politic, under the name of Trinity College, in connection with the United Church of England and Ireland ; which Corporation is by the said Act made to consist of the Lord Bishop of Toronto, or in case of the Division of the said Diocese, of the Bishops of the several Dioceses into which the Diocese of Toronto might be thereafter divided, and also of the Trustees of the said College, and of the members of the Council of the said College, not to be less than three in number, which said Trustees and the members of the said College Council, it was by the said Act provided, should be named in the first instance by the Lord Bishop of Toronto, and in the event of their death, removal from the Province, dismissal from office, or resignation, shall be replaced by other persons to be named in like manner, or in such other manner as may from time to time be directed by any Statute of the said College, to be passed for that purpose.

AND WHEREAS it is by the said Act further provided that the said Corporation of Trinity College shall, besides other corporate powers and capacities necessary to the well ordering of their affairs, have full power to make and establish such rules, orders, and regulations (not being contrary to the Laws of Canada, or to the said Act) as they shall deem useful or necessary, as well concerning the system of Education in, as for the conduct and government of, the said College, and of a Preparatory School to be connected with, or dependent on the same ; and for the management of the property belonging to the said Corporation, and shall have power to hold for the said College real and personal estate and property, and to sell, alienate, convey, or lease the same, if need be ; provided that the total yearly income from the property so acquired shall not at any time exceed the sum of five thousand pounds of current money of our said Province.

AND PROVIDED ALSO, that no rule, order, or regulation, which shall be made and established by the said Corporation in manner aforesaid, shall be of any force or effect until the same shall have been sanctioned and confirmed by the said Lord Bishop or Bishops as aforesaid.

AND WHEREAS, since the passing of the said Act, the Council of the said College have, with the sanction of the Lord Bishop of Toronto, by their Petition to us humbly set forth, that in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, Trinity College hath been duly organized, by the appointment of trustees and of a College Council, and that certain Statutes, Rules, and Ordinances have been made by the said Council, with the approval of the Lord Bishop of Toronto, and further, that a suitable building has been erected, and a Provost, and Professors in the faculties of Divinity and Arts, and in Law and Medicine, have been duly appointed, and are now engaged in the education of a considerable number of Scholars, duly admitted according to the Statutes and Ordinances of the said Corporation, and the said College being, according to the intention of the said Act of the Legislature of our Province of Canada, in strict connexion with the United Church of England and Ireland, and supported wholly from funds contributed by the members of that Church, and humble application hath been made to us by the said Corporation, and many of our loving subjects in the said Province of Canada, that we would be pleased to grant our Royal Charter for the more perfect establishment of the said College, by granting to it the privileges hereinafter mentioned.

NOW KNOW YE THAT WE, having taken the premises into our Royal consideration, and being willing to promote the more perfect establishment within the Diocese of Toronto of a College in connexion with the United Church of England and Ireland, for the education of youth in the doctrines and duties of the Christian Religion as inculcated by that Church, and for their instruction in the various branches of Science and Literature which are taught in the Universities of this Kingdom, have of our special grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, willed, ordained, and granted, and do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, will, ordain, and grant, that the said College shall be deemed and taken to be a University and shall have and enjoy all such and the like privileges as are enjoyed by our Universities of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as far as the same are capable of being had or enjoyed by virtue of these our Letters Patent ; and that the Students in the said College shall have liberty and faculty of taking the degrees of Bachelor, Master, and Doctor in the several Arts and Faculties, at the appointed times, and shall have liberty within themselves of performing all Scholastic exercises, for the conferring such Degrees, in such manner as shall be directed by the Statutes, Rules, and Ordinances of the said College.

AND, in order that such Degrees may be in due form granted in the said College, WE do further will, and direct, and ordain that there shall be at all times a Chancellor of the said University to be chosen at and for such periods of time, and under such rules and regulations as the College Council, by and with the sanction and approbation of the Lord Bishop or Bishops, aforesaid, may, by their Statutes, Rules, or Ordinances, to be from time to time passed for that purpose, think fit to appoint.

AND that the Chancellor, Provost, and Professors, of the said College, and all persons admitted therein to the Degree of Master of Arts, or to any Degree in Divinity, Law, or Medicine, and who from the time of such their admission to such Degree shall pay the annual sum of Twenty Shillings of sterling money for and towards the support and maintenance of the said College, shall be, and be deemed, taken, and reputed to be members of the Convocation of the said University, and as such members of the said Convocation, shall have, exercise, and enjoy all such powers and privileges in regard to conferring Degrees, and in any other matters, as may be provided for by any rules, orders, or regulations of the said College Council, sanctioned and confirmed by the Lord Bishop or Bishops as aforesaid, so far as the same are capable of being had and enjoyed by virtue of these our Letters Patent, and consistently with the provisions thereof, and with the said Act of the Legislature of our Province of Canada.

AND WE WILL, and by these Presents for us, our heirs and Successors, do grant and declare, that these our Letters Patent, or the enrolment or exemplification thereof, shall and may be good, firm, valid, sufficient, and effectual in the Law, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and shall be taken, construed, and adjudged in the most favourable and beneficial sense, and to the best advantage of our said College, as well in our Courts of Record as elsewhere, and by all and singular Judges, Justices, Officers, Ministers, and other subjects whatsoever of us, our heirs and successors, any mis-recital, non-recital, omission, imperfection, defect, matter, cause, or thing whatsoever to the contrary, notwithstanding.

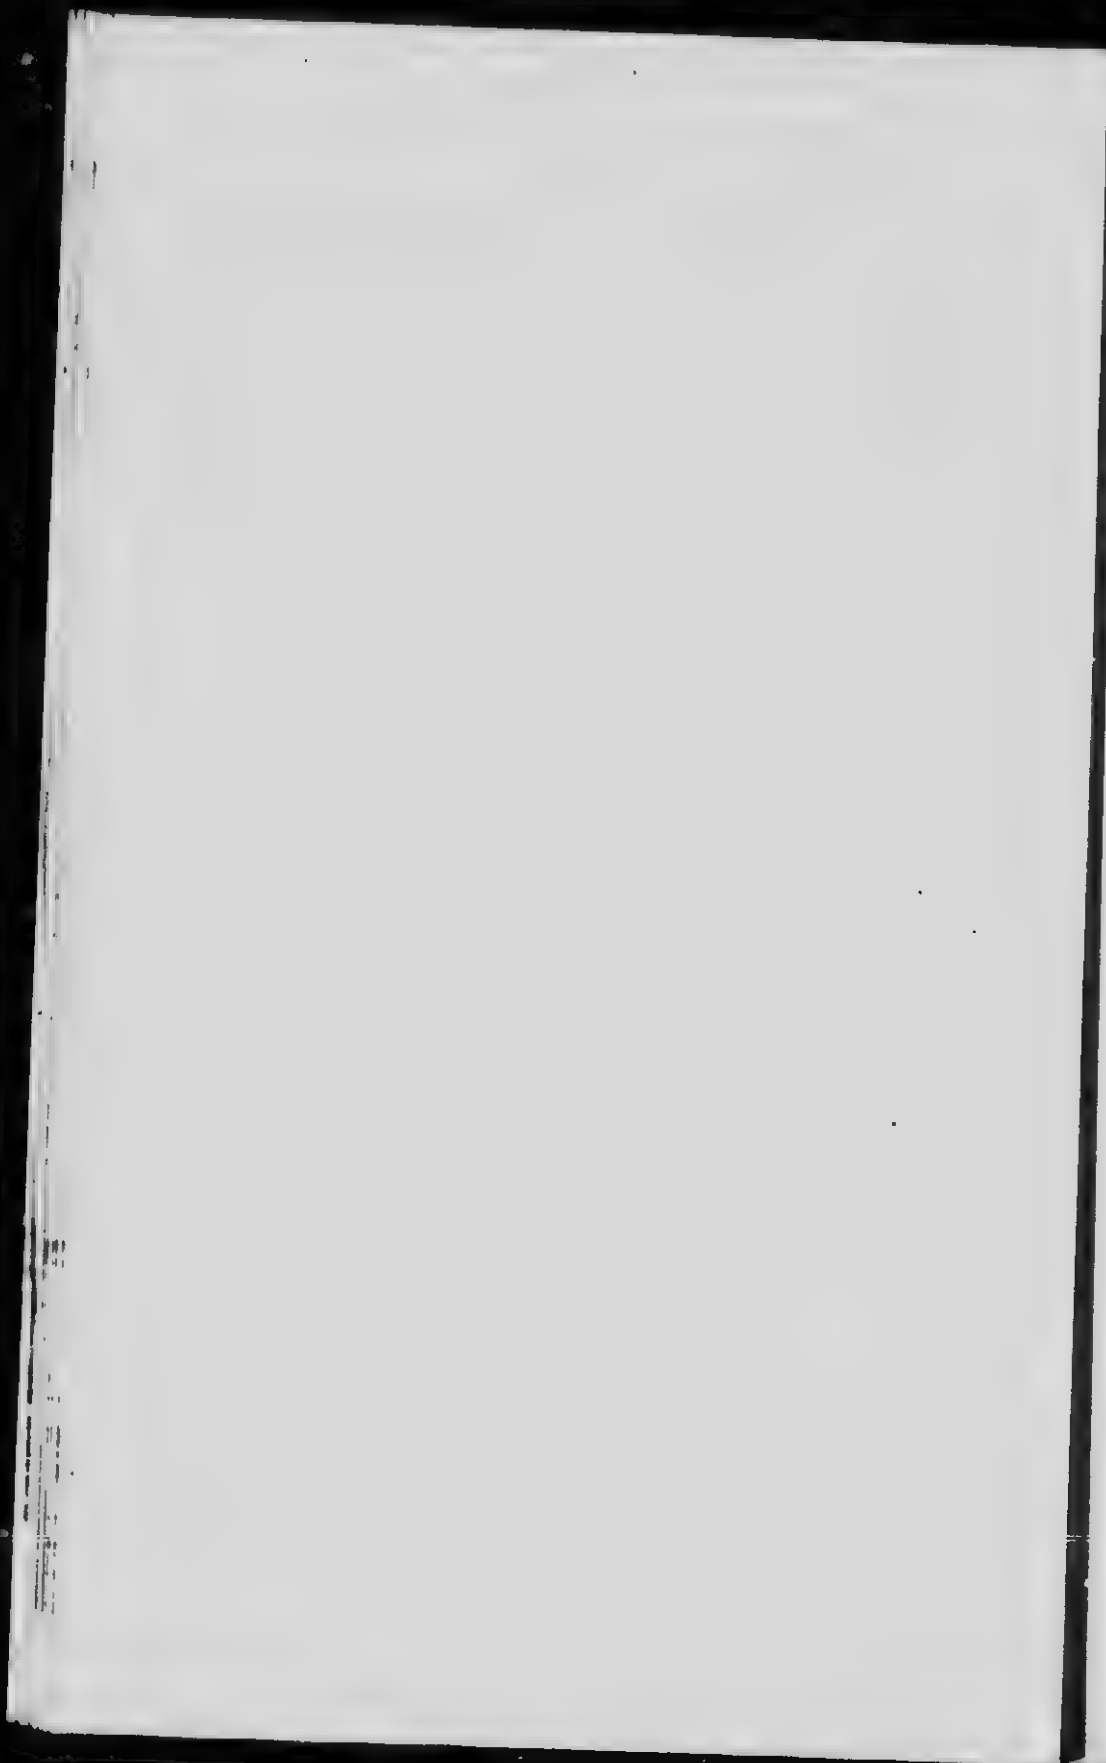

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent.

WITNESS OURSELF, at our Palace at Westminster, the Sixteenth day of July, in the sixteenth year of our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command.

And he shall answer:—Ita do fidem.

Vice- 11. The Provost of Trinity College shall be Chancellor. the Vice-Chancellor of the University.

12. In the absence of the Chancellor, or during the vacancy of the office, the duties of the office shall be performed by the Vice-Chancellor.

13. The duties of the Chancellor may be performed by a Deputy Chancellor, to be appointed by the Chancellor.

14. The Vice-Chancellor, on entering upon his office, shall make the declarations required of the Chancellor mutatis mutandis.

15. The Deputy Chancellor, on entering on his office, shall make the declaration required of the Vice-Chancellor.

16. The Vice-Chancellor may, during his absence, appoint a deputy to discharge the duties incident to his office.

Public Orator. 17. A Public Orator shall be elected by the Corporation, whose duty it shall be to introduce to the Chancellor persons upon whom any Honorary Degree is to be conferred.

Registrar. 18. A Registrar shall be appointed by the Corporation, whose duty it shall be to receive all Fees for Examinations, Matriculation, and Degrees, and to enter them in a book to be provided for that purpose.

19. The Registrar shall pay all fees received by him to the Bursar forthwith, and the Bursar shall certify in the Book of Fees that he has received the same.

20. It shall be the duty of the Registrar to certify the Caput that every Candidate for a Degree has kept the Terms and passed the Examinations required for such Degree, and also that he has paid all University and College fees and dues.

Examiners. 21. Examiners shall be appointed yearly by the Corporation, whose remuneration shall be fixed and duties defined by By-laws of the Corporation.

Esquire Bedells. 22. Two Esquire Bedells shall be appointed yearly by the Corporation, who must be members of Convocation, and whose duty it shall be to attend upon the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, and to marshal the procession at public meetings of Convocation, and on other public occasions.

Clerk of Convocation. 23. A Clerk of Convocation shall be appointed by the Corporation on the recommendation of Convocation, and shall discharge such duties as shall be assigned to him by Convocation or by statutes or by-laws of the University or College.

24. The Public Orator, the Registrar and the Clerk of Convocation shall be elected annually at the Annual General Meeting of the Corporation.

25. The remuneration (if any) of the Public Orator, the Registrar and the Clerk of Convocation shall be fixed by By-law.

CAP. II.

CONVOCATION.

1. Two general meetings of Convocation for conferring degrees shall be held in each year on days appointed by By-law, and special meetings may be held when called by the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor.
2. Five members of Convocation shall form a house.
3. There shall be a Caput, or Committee of Convocation, for examining Supplicants for Degrees: consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and four members of Convocation to be elected annually by Convocation, at the general meeting for conferring Degrees in Arts.
4. In the event of the absence of any one or more members of the Caput, the Vice-Chancellor shall be empowered to supply their place by other members of Convocation present.
5. Any Supplicat which shall pass the Caput shall be submitted to a vote of the Convocation on the request of a member.

CAP. III.

DEGREES.

- Honorary Degrees.* 1. No proposal to recommend to Convocation an Honorary Degree shall be made except by the Standing Committee on Honorary Degrees, and such proposal may be made by the said Committee at any General or Special Meeting of the Corporation, provided that notice of the intention to make such proposal has been given in the circular calling the meeting, as follows:—"The recommendation to Convocation of ——— Honorary Degrees will be proposed by the Standing Committee on Honorary Degrees."
2. No vote shall be taken upon a proposal to recommend an Honorary Degree unless sixteen members of the Corporation are present. The vote shall be taken by ballot, and the Degree shall not be recommended to Convocation unless three-fourths of the members present cast ballots in favour of such recommendation.

3. Upon such recommendation being made, a grace shall be offered to the Convocation for conferring such Degree.

4. Any Graduate of the University, holding the office of Bishop in the Church of England shall be eligible for the Degree of Doctor of Divinity, Jure Dignitatis, upon payment of the accustomed fee for that Degree.

5. The Executive Committee shall have power to authorize the granting of ad eundem Degrees on the Candidates' paying the admission fee and making the declarations required, but no ad eundem Degree shall be granted except for degrees taken in course.

Graduates of any Chartered University residing in Trinity College or in St. Hilda's College as a member of the staff or as a Student for one term, shall be incorporated in the University.

Ordinary 6. The Candidate for Matriculation in Degrees. Arts must have entered upon his sixteenth Matriculation. year.

7. He must produce testimonials of good conduct, pass the Matriculation Examination or be accepted by the Executive Committee, and pay the Matriculation Fee to the Registrar.

8. It must subscribe to the following declaration:

"I, A. B., do hereby promise and declare that I will faithfully obey the laws of the University of Trinity College and of any College in which I reside, and diligently attend to the studies required of me."

9. The Candidate for Matriculation in any Faculty other than Arts must subscribe to the following declaration in the presence of the Registrar, or his Deputy:

"I, A. B., do hereby promise and declare that I will cheerfully obey the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor, and observe the Statutes, Orders, and Regulations of the University."

10. The Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, shall, in Public Convocation, admit as members of the University the Candidates for Matriculation in the various Faculties who have signed the declaration required, and have complied with the other requirements, in the following form:

"A. B. in Facultatem Artium (aut Juris Civilis, aut Medicinæ aut Musicæ, aut Chirurgiæ Dentalis, aut Pharmaciæ) Academiæ Collegii Sacrosanctæ Trinitatis admittitur."

Bachelor of Arts. 11. The Candidate for this Degree must have kept by residence, nine complete Terms, except as provided for in sections 21, 22, 23.

12. In order that a Student may be allowed any Term, he shall be required to present to the Registrar of the University at the end of the Term a certificate, signed by the proper officer of the College, that he has attended a minimum percentage of the Chapels of the Term, and a minimum percentage of the Lectures of each Professor and Lecturer whose Lectures he is required to attend, except as otherwise provided by the College Statutes.

13. These minima shall be: of Chapels, sixty per cent. for Resident Students, fifty per cent. for Non-resident Students who live in lodgings, and sixty per cent. of the Morning Chapels of Sundays and Holy days for Non-resident Students who live at home; and of Lectures, seventy-five per cent. for all Students, resident and non-resident.

14. Students taking duty in City or Country Churches, or taking Sunday School work, shall, provided they have obtained the leave of the Provost, be allowed the Chapels and Lectures which such duty or Sunday School work may prevent their attending. Students who attend both Morning and Evening Prayer on Sunday, or who are absent taking duty or Sunday School work as above, shall have three Chapels allowed to them. Students who have obtained general leave from the Provost to be absent from Sunday afternoon Chapel shall be allowed that Chapel when they avail themselves of such general leave. Attendance at Choir Practice shall be allowed to count as a Chapel on the recommendation of the Precentor in each case.

15. In cases in which the required minima of Chapels and Lectures have not been attended by reason of serious illness or other urgent cause, it shall be competent for the Executive Committee to allow the Term.

16. Should an Undergraduate have lost one or more Terms he shall not thereby be debarred from presenting himself with his own year at the Primary or Previous Examination, but an undergraduate shall not be allowed to present himself for the Final B.A. Examination until he has kept nine terms.

17. Should the last of the nine terms kept by an Undergraduate be the Michaelmas or Lent Term, he may be allowed to have a special B.A. Examination on payment of a special Examination fee of thirty dollars, provided that the Examiners are all willing to undertake the duty of examining him.

18. The foregoing provisions are not to be interpreted as interfering with or relaxing any existing College regulation respecting Chapels or Lectures.

19. Residence and attendance at Lectures may be dispensed with in individual cases, in which application to that effect shall have been made to the Executive Committee, and the grounds assigned by the applicant approved by the Executive Committee. In such cases the applicant must not be less than twenty-five years of age, and will be required to matriculate and to pass the Primary. Previous and Final Examinations at intervals not less than those which are prescribed in the case of Resident Students.

20. The Candidate must also have passed the Primary, Previous and Final Examinations for the Degree of B.A., but the Executive Committee may accept for the Primary and Previous Examinations examinations which in their judgment are equivalent. The Fourth Form Examination of the Department of Education may be accepted pro tanto for the Primary Examination.

21. Students-at-Law of Osgoode Hall, or students attending lecture in any Medical College may be admitted to the Degree of B.A., if during their course in Law or Medicine they have kept three complete terms in Trinity College, and complied with all the other conditions required in the case of a candidate for the Degree of B.A.

Ad eundem statum. 22. Undergraduates of other Universities may, at the discretion of the Provost, be admitted ad eundem statum up to the end of the Second Year, provided they have kept their Terms by attending Lectures and passing Examinations.

In the case of clergymen in Priest's Orders who have completed the course of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, the Primary, Previous and Final Examinations only shall be required.

23. Students who keep Terms at any Theological College in British America for three years shall be admitted to the Degree of B.A. on condition of passing the usual Examinations, viz., the Matriculation, Primary, Previous and Final Examinations, at the accustomed times, the Candidate producing on each occasion the necessary certificate from the authorities of his college, viz., at the Matriculation Examination that he has been admitted as a Student of the College, and at the Primary, Previous and Final Examinations, that he has kept at least the requisite number of terms, and that he is in good standing. Such students who do not reside for so long a period as three years may be admitted to the Degree of B.A. on condition of keeping at Trinity College the rest of the Terms required, and of passing the necessary Examinations.

24. The Candidate must have paid to the Registrar the University Fees for this degree.

25. His Supplicat must have passed the Caput and the Convocation.

26. He must sign in the Registrar's Book the following declaration,

"I, A. B., do hereby promise and declare that I will cheerfully obey our Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor, and observe the Statutes, Orders and Regulations of the University."

"I, A. B., do sincerely promise that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King Edward."

The Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor is, however, empowered to dispense with the latter declaration, if such dispensation is sought by the Candidate on the ground that he is not a British subject.

27. He shall then be presented by the proper College officer to the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, with the following words:

"Honoratissime Domine, Domine Cancellarie, [or Dignissime Domine, Domine Pro-Cancellarie] et tota Universitas, præsentō vobis hunc juvenem, quem scio, tam moribus quam doctrinā, esse idoneum qui admittatur in gradum Baccalaurei in Artibus."

28. The Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, shall then admit the Candidate in the following form:—

"Ego Auctoritate mihi commissā admitto te in gradum Baccalaurei in Artibus: in nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritūs Sancti. Am. r."

Master of Arts. 29. The Candidate for this Degree must be a Bachelor of Arts, of one year's standing complete.

30. All other regulations as to the mode of proceeding to the Degree of M.A., shall be the same (mutatis mutandis) as in the case of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Licentiate in Sacred 31. The Candidate for this Degree must have kept by residence nine complete Terms.

Theology. A Candidate for this Degree who entered the Divinity Class before 1882, and has complied with the other requirements, may, however, be admitted to the degree if he has kept six complete terms.

32. He must (1) have passed the Primary Examination for the Degree of B.A., and three April Examinations of the Divinity Class, having taken all the subjects of such examinations; or (2) have obtained Honors in Theology, and have fulfilled the requirements for Letters Testimonial for Holy Orders.

33. Candidates for the Degree of Licentiate of Theology, if in Priest's Orders, may be admitted to the Degree by Examinations only without attendance at Lectures. They will be required to matriculate in Arts, pass the Primary Arts Examination and the three Examinations of the Divinity Class at the regular times.

34. Priests may also be admitted to the Examinations of the Divinity Class and on passing an Examination will be given a certificate to that effect by the Registrar, but will be eligible for the degree of Lic. Th.

35. All other regulation as to the mode of proceeding to this Degree shall be the same (mutatis mutandis) as in the case of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Bachelor of Divinity. 36. The Candidate for this Degree if a resident in the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada must proceed according to the regulations of the Canon of the General or Provincial Synod on Degrees in Divinity, and if not so resident he must be a graduate in Arts of the University of three years' standing or in the case of a Graduate admitted "ad eundem statum" of at least three years' standing from his first Degree.

37. The requirement that the Candidate for this Degree shall be a graduate in Arts of three years' standing may be dispensed with by the Executive Committee, on special application having been made to them, in the case of Clergymen who have been in Priest's orders for at least six years, but such candidates shall be required to pass the Matriculation Examination in Trinity College.

38. Except in the cases hereinafter provided for, the Candidate must pass in two Examinations, to be called the First and Second Examinations for the degree of B.D., and a year must elapse between the Examinations.

39. Graduates who have completed the course formerly prescribed in the Divinity School, Cobourg, or the Divinity Course in Trinity College, having taken at least a Second Class in each of the annual Examinations of the Divinity Class and passed in all the subjects of such Examinations, or have taken Honours in Theology, shall be exempted from the First Examination for this Degree.

Doctor of Divinity. 40. The Candidate for this Degree must be a Bachelor of Divinity of three years' standing complete, and must have been in Priest's Orders for ten years.

41. He must have performed the exercises required for this Degree.

42. All other regulations as to the mode of proceeding to degrees in Divinity shall be the same (mutatis mutandis) as in the case of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, except that the Candidate must sign a declaration of membership in the Church of England.

Bachelor of Civil Law. 43. The Candidate for this Degree must be a Matriculated Student of Trinity College (except in cases hereinafter provided for, where he is a Barrister-at-Law), but if he be a Student-at-Law who has been matriculated by the Law Society of Upper Canada, he may be admitted to Matriculation in the University without further examination.

44. He must be of the standing of three years from the date of Matriculation.

45. Except in the cases hereinafter mentioned, he must pass three Examinations, to be called the First, Second, and Final Examinations in Law.

46. He must be of the full age of twenty-three years, but this condition shall be dispensed with in the case of Students at Law of Osgoode Hall who have kept three complete Terms in Arts, and passed the Primary Examination.

47. If the Candidate produce a certificate of his having been called to the Degree of Barrister-at-Law by any Law Society in His Majesty's Dominions, and be a Graduate in Arts of the University of Trinity College, or of any chartered University in His Majesty's Dominions, the first two Examinations may be dispensed with, and the Degree of B.C.L. may be conferred after the Candidate has passed the Final Examination only, or if the Candidate be a Barrister-at-Law, as above mentioned, but not a graduate in Arts as above mentioned, the First Examination may be dispensed with, and the Degree of B.C.L. may be conferred after the Candidate has in different years passed the First and Second Examinations only.

Doctor of Civil Law. 48. The Candidate for this Degree must be a Bachelor of Civil Law of seven years' standing complete.

49. All other regulations as to the mode of proceeding to Degrees in Civil Law shall be the same (mutatis mutandis), as in the case of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Doctor of Medicine and Master of Surgery. 50. The Candidate for this Degree must have passed the Matriculation Examination in Arts or Medicine of this or some other recognized University, or that accepted by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario or Quebec, or that required by the Law Society of Upper Canada for Students-at-Law. The Examination prescribed by the Local Medical Board of Manitoba or of the Maritime Provinces, or any similar Examination, will be accepted, provided the Examination and standard are equivalent to those of the University, and the Candidate produces a satisfactory examination certificate shewing his standing in the various subjects.

51. He must be of the full age of twenty-one years, and must produce a satisfactory certificate of good conduct.

52. He must produce certificates of having pursued his Medical studies for a period of four years, and of having attended Lectures in some Medical College recognized by the University, for not less than four Winter Sessions, and of having attended such course of Lectures and such Hospital practice as shall be required by by-law of the Corporation.

53. The requirement of four years' pursuit of Medical Studies shall, in the case of Graduates in Arts, Science or Dentistry or of Candidates holding the license Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario, be reduced to attendance at three Winter Sessions in some Medical College recognized by the University.

54. He must have passed two University Examinations, to be called the Primary and the Final Examinations in Medicine, but the Primary Examination of other recognized Universities, and that of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, Quebec, or Manitoba, shall be accepted in lieu of the Primary Examination of this University, provided that the Candidate shall in all cases pay the full fee for the Degree.

55. Before admission to the Primary Examination the Candidate must furnish a certificate of having passed the First year Examination in some recognized Medical College. Candidates allowed the Primary Examination of any other Examining body in which any of the subjects of the University Primary Examination do not form part of the Examination, shall be required to take such subjects with the Final Examination.

56. Before admission to the Final Examination the Candidate must furnish a certificate of having passed the Third year Examination required by his Medical College.

57. All other regulations as to the mode of proceeding to Degrees in Medicine and Surgery shall be the same (mutatis mutandis) as in the case of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Bachelor of Music. 58. The Candidate for this Degree must transmit to the Registrar, before Matriculation, the Matriculation Fee and the following papers:

(i.) A Certificate of character in the following or some equivalent form:

"I, ——— hereby certify that I have known A. B. for the last ——— years, and I believe him to be of good moral character."

(ii.) A Certificate that he has employed five years in the study and practice of Music.

He must have passed the prescribed Matriculation Examination or an equivalent Examination.

59. He must have passed three Examinations, separated by intervals of not less than one year, to be called the First, Second, and Final Examinations in Music, and before admission to the Final Examination he must have composed an Exercise which has been approved of by the Examiners.

Doctor of Music. 60. The Candidate for this Degree must produce a testimonial under the hands of credible witnesses of his having studied in this Faculty for three years subsequent to his admission to the Degree of Bachelor of Music.

61. He must have performed the exercise required for this Degree.

62. All other regulations as to the mode of proceeding to Degrees in Music shall be the same (mutatis mutandis) as in the case of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

63. Women shall be admissible to Degrees in any Faculty except Divinity, on complying with the conditions for the Degree prescribed by the Statutes and By-laws.

Doctor of Dental Surgery. 64. A Candidate for this Degree must have passed a Matriculation Examination in Arts, Medicine, or Dentistry, of this or some other recognized University, or the Non-Professional Examination for a First, Second, or Third Class Teacher's Certificate (with Latin), or an Examination accepted by the University as equivalent to the above.

65. The Candidate must be of the full age of twenty-one years.

66. He must produce certificates of having attended lectures in some Dental College, recognized by this University, for three Winter Sessions of not less than seven months each.

67. He must have performed the Exercises required for this Degree.

68. All other regulations as to the mode of proceeding to the Degree of D.D.S. shall be the same (mutatis mutandis) as in the case of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Bachelor of Pharmacy. 69. The Candidate for this Degree must have passed (a) the Matriculation in Arts, Medicine, or Dental Surgery of this, or some other recognized University, or (b) the Departmental Non-Professional Examination (with Latin) for a First, Second, or Third Class Teacher's Certificate.

70. The Candidate must be twenty-one years of age and, before Examination, must furnish to the Registrar of Trinity University satisfactory evidence of his having attended the courses of lectures prescribed, with laboratory work, for at least six months in some recognized College of Pharmacy or of Medicine; and also of his having passed a practical course of instruction for at least four years under the direction of a qualified Pharmacist.

71. He must have performed the Exercises required for this Degree.

Doctor of 72. The Candidate for this Degree must Pharmacy. be a Bachelor of Pharmacy of at least three years' standing.

73. He must have performed the Exercises for this Degree.

74. All other regulations as to proceeding to Degrees in Pharmacy shall be the same (mutatis mutandis) as in the case of the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

75. The following shall be the Hoods prescribed for the various Degrees:

Lic. Th.: Black stuff edged with dark blue silk four inches wide.

1. There shall be seven Boards of Study, as follows: (i.) Divinity, (ii.) Litterae Humaniores, (iii.) Mathematics and Science, (iv.) Law, (v.) Medicine, (vi.) Music (vii.) Dentistry, and (viii.) Pharmacy, whose composition and appointment shall be regulated by By-laws.

2. These Boards of Study shall, from time to time, advise the Executive Committee as to any changes which shall seem to them desirable in those studies of the University in which they have respective cognizance, as to the appointment of Examiners, and as to all matters affecting such duties.

CAP. V.

UNIVERSITY SEAL.

1. The seal of the University shall be in the custody of the Vice-Chancellor, and it shall be affixed to diplomas under the hand of the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar, and to other certificates under the hand of the Registrar.

STATUTES OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

CAP. I.

THE CORPORATION.

Annual General Meeting. 1. The Annual General Meeting of the Corporation shall be held on the Thursday after the twentieth day of October of each year, and at this meeting the Annual Report of the Land and Finance Committee shall be presented, and the Standing Committees of the Corporation, and the Officers of the University and College, whose appointments are not of a permanent character, shall be elected.

Other General Meeting. 2. A General Meeting shall be held in each year on the Wednesday after the second Tuesday in the month of May.

3. General Meetings may also be held on the Wednesday after the second Tuesday in any month besides May, and October, on a notice from the Provost to the Secretary, that a meeting is required.

Special Meetings. 4. Special meetings of the Corporation may be called by the Executive Committee whenever it shall be deemed by them to be necessary, and it shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to call such meeting upon the receipt of a requisition asking them to do so, signed by at least five members of the Corporation.

Notice of Meetings. 5. Notice of any General or Special Meeting shall be posted to each member by the Secretary, at least a week previous to the day for which the meeting is called, and in the case of a Special Meeting, the notice shall specify the purpose for which such meeting is called.

6. At any meeting of the Corporation seven shall form a quorum.

CAP. II.

COMMITTEES.

1. There shall be the following Standing Committees: (1) The Land Finance Committee; (2) the Executive Committee; (3) the Committee on Discipline; (4) the Committee on Honorary Degrees, and (5) the College Committee.

2. The Land and Finance Committee shall consist of the Chancellor, the Dean of Residence, the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar of the University of Trinity College, and eight other members of the Corporation to be elected annually. This Committee shall manage the lands and the funds of the Corporation under rules to be prescribed by By-law.

3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Provost and Dean of Residence of Trinity College, the Registrar of the University, such Professors of Trinity College as may be members of the Corporation, and eight other members of the Corporation, to be elected annually. This Committee shall, from time to time, advise the Corporation on the studies of the College and the Curriculum of the University, and the nomination of Examiners. They shall regulate the admission to the Degree of B.A. by Examinations only, the keeping of Terms by Students, the permission for Students to be non-resident, and all matters relating to Scholarships, Exhibitions, and Bursaries. They shall also have power upon the recommendation of the Board of Studies in the several departments to fix from time to time, the selected Authors, Subjects, etc., in the various Faculties. They shall also be empowered to accept at their discretion, Examinations or parts of Examinations, of other bodies in lieu of Examinations prescribed by the Statutes and By-laws of the University.

4. The Committee on Discipline shall consider and deal with all questions involving the expulsion or rustication of Students for a longer period than thirteen weeks, and all other questions of discipline which may be referred to them by the College Committee.

5. The Committee on Honorary Degrees shall consist of the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor and five other members of the Corporation to be elected yearly at the Annual General Meeting of the Corporation.

6. The College Committee shall consist of the Provost and Professors in Arts and Divinity, the Emeritus Professors and the Fellows and Lecturers of Trinity College, and shall meet at the call of the Provost. They shall consult on matters affecting the good order of the College, and the regulation of the exercises therein, and shall take such order, and make such rules as may from time to time be found necessary for the discipline and good government of the Students. They shall also consider all such matters as the standing of Students, courses of study, special applications in regard to Examinations and keeping of terms, and shall adjudicate on the same, so far as they relate to College discipline, rules and regulations, and may make such recommendations as they deem advisable to the Executive Committee in regard to the relations of such matters to University rules and regulations.

7. Reports and recommendations from the Convocation of the University shall be received and considered in the same manner as reports of Committees of the Corporation.

8. Reports and recommendations from the College Committee shall be received and considered in the same manner as Reports of the Committees of the Corporation, and the Provost after consultation with the College Committee shall at each Annual General Meeting of the Corporation present an Educational Report.

CAP. III.

COLLEGE OFFICERS.

1. The Head of Trinity College shall be styled the Provost of Trinity College.

2. The Provost may, but need not necessarily, be the holder of a Professorship or other University or College office, and may be either a Clergyman or a Layman.

3. Such and so many Professorships as shall from time to time be deemed necessary or expedient, shall be established in the College by the Corporation. A Professorship may be established by a general meeting of the Corporation, notice having been given at the preceding General Meeting, provided that the Finance Committee shall have reported that the stipend required for the payment of the Professor has been secured.

4. The remuneration of Professors, Fellows and other officers shall be fixed by By-law.

5. Any person who shall have held a Professorship for twenty-five years may on resigning the same be elected Professor Emeritus, but no stipend shall be attached thereto.

6. A Professor Emeritus may be elected at any General Meeting of the Corporation, notice having been given of a motion to that effect at the preceding General Meeting.

7. The Provost shall not, nor shall any Professor, undertake the discharge of any duties of a permanent character, or accept any office, whether of emolument or otherwise, without the consent of the Corporation.

8. The Provost and Professors of Trinity College shall be appointed and removed by the Corporation.

9. No such appointment or removal shall be made except a majority at least of the Corporation be present, a majority of those present concurring in such appointment or removal.

10. No proposition for the removal of a Provost or Professor shall be submitted to the Corporation except through the Chancellor, whose duty it shall be to submit such proposition on a written requisition, addressed to him by not less than five members of the Corporation.

11. Every appointment and removal shall be by instrument under the seal of the Corporation: and, in case of a removal, this instrument shall state particularly the cause of such removal.

12. The Provost, Professors and Fellows shall reside in the College buildings, but the Corporation may by Special Statute dispense with this requirement in the case of the Provost or any Professor.

13. In the absence of any agreement to the contrary the engagement of the Provost or Professor may be terminated by a six months' notice from the Provost or Professor or from the Corporation terminating with the 30th of September in any year.

14. Breaches of discipline on the part of students may be punished by gating, i.e., confinement to the College building or grounds, fines, or rustication. The first two punishments may be inflicted by a Professor, Resident Emeritus Professor, Fellow or Lecturer, provided that in the case of a fine the amount thereof for the offence in question shall have been determined by the College Committee. The Provost and Dean shall severally have an additional power of imposing fines not exceeding $5, otherwise than as above. The College Committee shall have the further power of rusticating students for a period not exceeding thirteen weeks.

15. The duties of the Provost and of the several Professors shall be such as shall from time to time be declared by the Statutes and By-laws.

16. It shall be the duty of the Provost to admit students, to see that the Rules, Statutes, and Regulations of the College be faithfully observed, to enforce discipline, to order and preside over College Exercises, to have an active inspection over all the internal affairs of the College, and to regulate the inferior officers and servants.

17. There shall be a Dean of Residence who shall be one of the Resident Professors, and shall be elected annually by the Corporation.

18. When the Provost is absent or incapacitated by illness, or during the vacancy of the office one of the Professors to be appointed by the Provost or (failing such appointment) by the Executive Committee shall have the powers and perform the duties of the Provost. Any such appointment shall be subject to approval by the Corporation at the next meeting after the same has been made.

19. There shall be a Dean of the Faculty of Theology, who shall be the Provost ex officio if he be in Holy Orders, and otherwise one of the Professors of Theology to be elected annually by the Corporation.

20. The Dean of Residence shall assist the Provost by administering and enforcing discipline in all minor matters, and by exercising a direct supervision over the internal economy of the College and over the inferior officers and servants, as also, in conjunction with the Bursar and the Provost over all matters connected with the care of the buildings and grounds. He shall keep a register of the attendance of Students at Chapel and Lectures, and report the same, when desired, to the proper officer of the University. He shall also publish a weekly statement of Students whose attendance at Chapels is deficient, shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the College Committee and shall send in to the Registrar a list of Students who have passed the College Examinations, and at the end of the Easter Term a list of the terms kept by Students during the Academical year.

21. There shall be a College Registrar, who shall be elected each year at the Annual General Meeting of the Corporation, and whose duty it shall be to advise the Students in all matters relating to their courses of study, to prepare the Time Table of Lectures, to supervise the College Examinations, and generally to assist the Provost in all matters connected with the Academical work of the College.

22. Lecturers and Teachers in particular branches of education may be appointed from time to time by the Corporation, who shall regulate their duties and emolument.

23. The Dean of the Faculty of Theology shall admit Students of the Divinity Class and shall have a general supervision of the work of the Faculty.

24. The Bursar, who shall also be the Secretary, shall be annually appointed by the Corporation; he shall give security satisfactory to the Corporation for the faithful discharge of his duties, and his accounts shall be at all times open to the inspection of the Corporation, or of any member thereof.

25. There shall be two Auditors annually appointed by the Corporation, one of whom shall be a Chartered Accountant, resident in Toronto, and the other any member of the Land and Finance Committee.

26. There shall be a Librarian, who shall be one of the Professors, and shall be appointed annually by the Corporation.

27. The Jubilee Scholars shall be Assistant Librarians.

28. The Solicitor shall be annually appointed by the Corporation.

CAP. IV.

FELLOWSHIPS.

1. The Fellows of Trinity College shall be Graduates in Honors of the University of Trinity College, or some other recognized University. They shall be appointed and removed by the Corporation, holding their Fellowships at the pleasure of the Corporation. No Fellowship shall be tenable for a longer period than five years, but any Fellow shall be eligible for re-election.

2. No appointment to a Fellowship shall be made by the Corporation unless the Executive Committee or a Special Committee appointed by the Corporation for the purpose shall have reported on the matter.

3. The Fellows shall reside within the College during term time, unless any Fellow shall be specially exempted from such residence by the Corporation.

4. Each Fellow shall take such teaching work in his own Department as shall be assigned to him from time to time by the Corporation, and shall engage in research or study in the higher branches of his Department under the general direction of the Board of Studies for that Department.

5. It shall be the duty of Fellows of the College to assist in the maintenance of discipline within the College.

6. No appointment of a permanent character whether of emolument or otherwise, shall be undertaken by a Fellow without the consent of the Corporation.

CAP. V.

THE COUNCIL.

1. No member of the College Council shall be a member of the governing body of any other University, College, or Divinity School within the Province, not in affiliation with the University of Trinity College at the time of his election or nomination to the Council of Trinity College, or while he is serving therein, except he be an ex officio member of such governing body.

2. The Chancellor and ex-Chancellors of the University, the Provost and Emeritus Professors in Divinity and Arts of Trinity College, the Registrar of the University, and the Dean of Residence shall be ex officio members of the Council.

3. The College Committee shall elect a member of the Council from among the other Professors in Divinity or Arts.

4. The Bishops of Toronto, Huron, Ontario. Niagara, Ottawa and Algoma shall each nominate four members of the Council from their respective Dioceses: each Medical, Musical or Theological College affiliated with the University shall nominate one member; fourteen members shall be elected by Convocation as provided for hereafter, and twelve members shall be elected by the whole Corporation, of whom two shall be actively engaged in Educational work in connection with the School System of the Province of Ontario.

5. The Synod of any Diocese in the Province of Ontario may by Canon, By-law or Resolution make provision for electing two Lay and two Clerical members of the Council, and on the Bishop of any such Diocese certifying to the Corporation that such Canon, By-law or Resolution has been passed, he shall thereafter nominate only two members of the Council from his Diocese.

6. The members nominated by the Bishops and by the affiliated Colleges shall hold office for four years.

7. Of the fourteen members elected by Convocation eight shall be elected by the graduates in Arts and Divinity, who are members of Convocation, and shall hold office for four years, two being elected in each year; two shall be elected by the Graduates in Law who are members of Convocation, and shall hold office for two years, one being elected in each year; two shall be elected by the Graduates in Medicine who are members of Convocation, and shall hold office for two years, one being elected in each year; and two shall be elected by the Associate members of Convocation and shall hold office for two years, one being elected in each year.

8. No person shall be eligible for election by Convocation except he be a male, a member of the Church of England, and qualified to vote on that election; and no person shall be eligible to be elected by the Associate Members of Convocation except he be a male Associate Member of Convocation, and a member of the Church of England.

9. Candidates for election shall be nominated in writing at the Annual General Meeting of Convocation, and no votes shall be received for any candidate not so nominated.

10. The election of the fourteen members by Convocation shall be conducted by means of voting papers, which shall be sent by the Registrar to each voter together with a list of the candidates nominated for election by his vote. These voting papers must be returned to the Registrar, by noon, on the second Tuesday in December of each year.

11. Lists of Members of Convocation and of Associate Members of Convocation entitled to a vote at such election in alphabetical order and with their addresses shall be furnished by the Clerk of Convocation to the Registrar, not later than the fifteenth day of November in each year; and no Member's name shall be inserted in such list who has not paid all fees due to Convocation on or before the first day of January preceding the election.

12. The following form of voting paper shall be sent to each elector for the Chancellorship:

"I, A. B., Graduate (or Member of Convocation) of the University of Trinity College, Toronto, do hereby declare that I desire that my vote may be recorded for as Chancellor of the University."

13. The following form of voting paper shall be sent to each Member of Convocation entitled to vote for members of the Council, with a list of the candidates nominated:

"I, A. B., being Graduate in the Faculty of and Member of Convocation of the University of Trinity College, Toronto, in good standing, do hereby desire that my vote may be recorded for as Members of the Council."

14. The following form of voting paper shall be sent to each Associate Member of Convocation entitled to vote for a member of Council, with a list of the candidates nominated:

"I, A. B., being an Associate Member of the Convocation of the University of Trinity College, Toronto, in good standing, do hereby desire that my vote may be recorded for as member of the Council."

15. In the event of a casting vote being required in consequence of an equal number of votes having been cast for two or more Candidates, this casting vote shall be given by the Chairman of Convocation.

16. In the event of a vacancy occurring by death, resignation, or otherwise among the members of Council elected by the members of Convocation and graduates, or by the Associate Members of Convocation, a new election to fill such vacancy for the residue of the term shall be held within two months after the receipt by the Registrar of notice thereof in writing from the Clerk of Convocation, or from any three members of Convocation.

17. Candidates for such bye elections shall be nominated in writing by the Executive Committee of Convocation, and no votes shall be received for any candidate not so nominated.

18. The Clerk of Convocation shall forward to the Registrar a list of all candidates nominated for any election, within three days after the nomination has been made, whether at the Annual Meeting of Convocation or by the Executive Committee of Convocation.

19. The following persons who were entitled to vote for Chancellor and Members of Council, under a former statute, shall continue to be so entitled, notwithstanding anything herein contained: Rev. H. Auston, M.A.; Rev. A. H. Baldwin, M.A.; Rev. C. J. S. Bethune, M.A., D.C.L.; Ven. W. B. Carey, M.A.; F. Barlow Cumberland, M.A.; Elmes Henderson, M.A.; James Henderson, M.A., D.C.L.; P. Æ. Irving, M.A., D.C.L.; Beverley Jones, M.A.; F. W. Kingstone, M.A., B.C.L.; Rev. J. Langtry, M.A., D.C.L.; G. A. Mackenzie, M.A.; A. F. Matheson, M.A.; Rev. A. G. Mortimer, D.D.; R. B. Nevitt, B.A., M.D., C.M.; Rev. R. T. Nichol, M.A.; A. P. Poussette, K.C., B.C.L.; J. A. Worrell, K.C., M.A., D.C.L.

20. On the occurrence of one or more vacancies among the twelve members of the Council elected by the Corporation, such vacancy or vacancies shall be notified to the Corporation by the Secretary at their next general meeting, and the Secretary shall thereupon be instructed to send a written notice to every member of the Corporation, informing him that an election of one or more members of Council will take place at the general meeting of the Corporation next following. No such election, however, shall be proceeded with except twelve members be present. A majority of those present shall suffice to make a valid election, and the voting shall be by ballot.

21. Every member of the College Council shall, upon his admission to his seat, sign the following declarations:

"I, A. B., do willingly and heartily declare that I am truly and sincerely a member of the Church of England."

And

"I, A. B., do sincerely promise that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King Edward."

22. Absence from the meetings of the Corporation for the space of two years, without leave obtained of the Corporation and entered on their minutes, shall occasion any member of the Council to vacate his seat ipso facto.

23. No member of the Corporation (except he be an ex-officio member thereof, or an ex-officio member of the College Council) shall be appointed to, or hold any office of emolument in the gift of the Corporation, except that of Examiner.

24. At meetings of the Corporation the Chancellor, or the Bishop, who is senior by consecration, or the Vice-Chancellor, in the order named, if present at the opening of the meeting, shall preside as Chairman throughout the meeting; but the Chair being so taken, or if none of the persons named be present, the Corporation may thereupon, or later in the proceedings, elect a special Chairman for that meeting.

25. No proposition for the enactment, alteration, or repeal of any Statute of the University or College shall be submitted to the Corporation except at a general meeting, notice having been given at the preceding general meeting, or the same having been previously adopted by the Executive Committee at two meetings thereof, and notice having been given of the proposed change in the circular announce-ing the meeting of Corporation, and for the enactment of a special Statute, a majority of three-fourths of the members present shall be required.

26. A By-law of the Corporation may be enacted, suspended, altered, or repealed at any general meeting by a majority of those present, on the motion of any member, without notice having been previously given, provided always that such enactment, alteration, or repeal of a By-law, or the voting on any resolution for which no notice has been given, must be postponed to the next meeting, on the requisition of four members of Corporation, unless recommended by some standing or special Committee of Corporation.

27. No change in any Statute or By-law respecting the Curriculum for any degree shall affect any student who shall have registered in the University before March 1st in the year in which such change is announced in the University Calendar, except that any change in the requirements for the Final Examination for M.D., C.M., shall apply to all students who have not passed their Primary Examination at the time of the issue of the Calendar containing the notice of such change.

28. By-laws may also be enacted, suspended, altered or repealed by the Executive Committee by resolutions adopted at the meetings of the Committee, such enactment, suspension, alteration or repeal to remain in force until the next general meeting of the Corporation in May or October, at which meeting they are to be reported to the Corporation, when they may be confirmed or disallowed, but no such disallowance shall invalidate anything done under the By-law prior to the disallowance.

CAP. VI.

REGULATIONS FOR STUDENTS.

Admission to 1. Graduates and Undergraduates in Divinity Class. Arts of Trinity College may be admitted to the Divinity Class, provided they have obtained the approval of the College Committee under the following regulations:—

(1) A Graduate in Arts may make application for admission to the first or second year of the Divinity Class, and being admitted will be required to take the full three years' work of the class.

(2) An Undergraduate in Arts may make application at the end of his second year for admission to the Divinity Class, and being admitted will be required to take the first year's work of the Course concurrently with the work of the Third year in Arts, and afterwards to take two full years in the Divinity Class.

(3) A Graduate or Undergraduate taking Theological Honors will proceed as set forth in the regulations governing the Theological Honor Course.

(4) An Undergraduate in Arts, not proceeding to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, may make application at the end of his first year in Arts for admission to the Divinity Class, and being admitted will be required to take the full three years' course. This proceeding leads, at the end of the fourth year, to the Diploma of Licentiate in Sacred Theology.

Note.—In special cases by permission of the Provost a Student proceeding to the degree of Lic. Th. may divide the work of the first year in Arts, taking in his first year so much of the work as may be prescribed, and in his second year the remaining work of his first year in Arts concurrently with the work of the first year of the Divinity Class.

2. Any Student may, at the discretion of the Provost, be required to withdraw from the Divinity Class.

Admission to 3. Candidates for admission must have Arts. entered their sixteenth year, and must produce testimonials of good conduct.

4. They must pass the Matriculation Examination except as provided in the next section.

5. Students may be admitted to College by the Provost without Matriculation; but if they have not written on the Supplemental Matriculation they must pay a fee of $5, and they cannot be registered with the University until they have passed the Primary Examination.

Terms. 6. The Academical Year shall consist of three Terms: Michaelmas Term, from October 3rd to December 18th; Lent Term, beginning January 12th; Easter Term, ending on June 24th, provided that these dates may be altered by the Executive Committee. The end of the Lent Term and the beginning of the Easter Term shall be fixed in each year by the Executive Committee, with the proviso that Easter day shall be in the vacation, which shall not exceed 23 days, including the last day of Lent Term and the first day of Easter Term.

7. Undergraduates will ordinarily commence residence at the beginning of the Michaelmas Term, but may on sufficient grounds, be admitted at a by-Term.

8. Students whose parents live in Toronto may obtain a dispensation from residence from the Provost, and in other cases this dispensation may be given by the Executive Committee, but such dispensation shall not be granted to Students holding Bursaries.

9. All Students will be required to provide themselves with cap and gown, according to a prescribed fashion; or being Graduates of other Universities, may use the gowns belonging to their respective Degrees, which they will be required to wear at Chapel, in Hall, and at Lectures. They must also procure a surplice, to be worn in Chapel at appointed times.

Chapel. 10. Service according to the Liturgy of the Church of England shall be conducted in the College Chapel twice daily during Term, and every person resident in College, being a Member of the Church of England, shall attend such services, unless prevented by illness or some other cause satisfactory to the Provost. The record of attendance at such services shall be taken into account in determining the keeping of Term as provided in the University Statutes, Cap. III., and in determining the standing of Students.

Students who are not members of the Church of England may substitute for attendance at the Chapel services a course of Lectures on the Holy Scriptures, with Examination in the same, to which the same value for standing.

etc., shall be attached as is given for attendance at the Chapel services.

11. Strangers wishing to attend the College Chapel on Sundays and Saints' days may do so by permission of the Provost.

Lectures. 12. Public notice shall be given at the beginning of each Term of the Lectures of that Term.

13. In the case of the loss of a Term by a Student through failure to keep the minimum percentage of Chapels or Lectures, as required by the University Statutes, Chap. III., notice of such loss of Term, and of the cause thereof, shall be sent by the Dean to such Student's parent or guardian without delay, and in the case of a Student failing to pass any Examination, University or College, notice of such failure shall also be sent by the Dean.

CAP. VII.

CORPORATE SEAL.

The Seal of the Corporation shall be in the custody of the Vice-Chancellor of the University, who shall affix it to all necessary documents, and shall certify it under his hand.

2. The Seal shall be affixed to documents only by authority of a resolution of Corporation or of the Land and Finance Committee.

3. The Secretary of the Corporation shall keep a Seal book in which shall be entered the particulars relating to sealing of documents in columns as follows:

- (1) Body which authorizes affixing of the Seal.
- (2) Date of resolution with page of minutes in which such resolution appears.
- (3) Description of document whose sealing was ordered.

- (4) Signature of the Chairman of the meeting at which such order was passed, verifying the same.
- (5) Date of sealing of document.
- (6) Signature of officer affixing seal.

4. All documents shall be endorsed as approved by the Solicitor before execution, and a copy thereof shall be deposited with the Bursar.

THE O. M. D.

BY-LAWS OF TRINITY COLLEGE.

Convocation. 1. General Meetings of Convocation shall be held in May on a day to be fixed annually by the Vice-Chancellor, and on the Tuesday before the Annual General Meeting of Corporation.

Special Meetings may be called by the Vice-Chancellor.

Examinations. 2. University Examiners shall be appointed annually, in the various departments of the Faculties of Divinity, Arts, Law, Medicine, Music, Dentistry and Pharmacy.

3. At least two days before the beginning of any Examination, the Registrar shall publish a list of Candidates for such Examination, and no Candidate shall be allowed to present himself for Examination unless his name appear in such List. The Registrar shall not insert in such List the name of any person who has not previously paid to him the prescribed Fee.

4. The University Examinations shall be conducted under the immediate supervision of the Vice-Chancellor, who shall convene meetings of the Examiners for the purpose of arranging and determining on all matters relative to the Examinations.

5. In marking papers, the Examiner should, unless otherwise instructed by the Registrar, assign 100 as the maximum marks for each paper.

6. At the beginning of any Examination the Registrar shall assign to each Candidate a distinguishing word or number, and throughout the whole of the Examination the Candidate shall place such word or number upon his papers, and shall not use his name or any mark by which his identity might be disclosed.

7. At every University Examination it is expected that two Examiners shall be present during the whole time of Examination, and under no circumstances whatever shall both Examiners be absent at the same time.

8. No Candidate shall be allowed to leave the Hall till half an hour after the distribution of the papers, nor shall any Candidate be permitted to take the paper when this half hour has elapsed.

9. The Candidate shall write upon one side only of the paper, place his word or number upon each page, fold the papers once across, and endorse them with the name of his Examination, the subject of the paper, and his assigned word or number.

10. In the event of any Candidate taking into the Examination Hall any book or paper from which he might derive assistance, or communicating with any other Candidate, either verbally or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Examiner, if the evidence is clear, to cause the Candidate to forthwith leave the Examination Hall, and he shall be dealt with by the Executive Committee as provided below; but if the evidence be not clear at the time or be obtained after the conclusion of the Examination, the Examiners shall withhold his name from the list of Candidates who have satisfied the Examiners, and shall report the case to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall refer the matter to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall then call on the Candidate to offer any defence he shall deem proper, and on hearing such defence, or in default of his offering any defence, the Executive Committee shall deal with the case as they may deem proper, and inflict such punishment as they may think fitting.

11. Any Examiner may, during or after the Examination, examine any Candidate viva voce, and the standing of such Candidate shall be decided by both the written and oral Examination.

12. In case of a Candidate falling below the minimum required for passing, the Examiner is requested to read his answers a second time and to note on his return of marks to the Registrar that this has been done.

13. At any Examination in the various Faculties, an Official List of those who have satisfied the Examiners, shall be drawn up and signed by the Examiners; and this, together with a detailed statement of the marks gained by each Candidate in the several subjects of the Examination, a set of copies of the Examination papers, and the papers sent in by the Candidates, shall be transmitted without delay to the Vice-Chancellor.

14. The marks obtained in any Examination by Candidates, whether successful or not, shall not be made known to them, but unsuccessful Candidates may be informed as to the subjects on which they have failed, and under no circumstances shall an Examiner or any other official disclose, either directly or indirectly, any result of an Examination before or after the official publication of the Lists, except as above provided.

15. Invigilators appointed by the Corporation, or the Executive Committee, shall have the same authority in the Examination Hall as is possessed by Examiners.

16. Candidates for Honours in the Examination for the Degree of B.A. shall be arranged in three Classes, and placed in each class in order of merit. The number of marks required for these classes shall be sixty-six per cent., fifty per cent. and forty per cent. respectively of the total marks assigned to the Department.

17. Candidates for Honours, though they have failed to obtain a Class in Honours, may be granted the Degree of B.A. on the recommendation of the Examiners.

18. The Examiners in any department of the Final Examination for B.A. may, at their discretion, add a Fourth Honorary Class to their Honour List, consisting of those who, not being Candidates for Honours, have highly distinguished themselves in that department of the Pass Examination.

19. In order that a Candidate may pass in any University Examination for the pass B.A. Degree he must obtain thirty-three per cent. of the marks of each paper and forty per cent. of the total marks of the Examination.

20. In each University Examination for the pass B.A. Degree the Candidates shall be arranged in three Classes, the Examiners placing in the First Class those who have obtained sixty per cent. of the total marks of the Examination, in the Second Class those who have obtained fifty per cent., and in the Third Class those who have obtained less than forty-five per cent. For the purpose of such classification the department of Mathematics shall be valued at 400 marks; all other departments at 200, except in cases where only one paper is set, when the marks of the department shall be 100.

21. The standard for Examinations of the Divinity Class shall be: for Honours, seventy-five per cent; for First Class, sixty-six per cent.; for Second Class, fifty per cent.; for passing, forty per cent. of the total marks, and thirty-three per cent. of the marks on each paper.

22. Candidates at Matriculation, who obtain sixty-seven per cent. of the total marks in the Pass and Honour subjects of any Department, shall be placed in the First Class in such Department, and those who obtain fifty per cent. in the Second Class.

23. If at any of the Examinations for the Degree of B.A. or at the July Matriculation Examination a Candidate fail in not more than three departments, to obtain the marks necessary for passing, he may, at the discretion of the Examiners, be allowed the Examination on condition of his passing in the Departments on the papers in which he failed, at a Supplemental Examination to be held in the following September.

24. In order that a Candidate may pass in any Examination in the Faculties of Divinity, Law, Medicine, Music, or Pharmacy, he must have obtained one-third of the marks in each of the subjects of Examination, and one-half of the total marks of the Examination, except that in the Faculty of Music, half of the marks must be obtained in the subjects of Harmony and Counterpoint.

25. In the Examinations for the degree of M.D., C.M., 30 marks shall be the maximum for each of the subjects, Practical Chemistry, Toxicology, Medical Jurisprudence, and Sanitary Science, 40 for Histology, 50 for each of the subjects, Clinical Medicine, Clinical Surgery, Pathology, Applied Anatomy, Therapeutics, Gynæcology, Pædiatrics, 60 for Practical Anatomy, 80 for Chemistry and Physics and for Materia-Medica and Pharmacy, 100 for Descriptive Anatomy, Physiology, Surgery, Medicine, Midwifery.

26. In each of the University Examinations in Law, Medicine, Music, Dentistry and Pharmacy, Candidates obtaining seventy per cent. of the marks shall be placed in the First Class, those obtaining sixty per cent. in the Second Class, and those obtaining less than sixty per cent. in the Third Class.

27. Candidates in the First Class of the Final or the Primary Examination in Medicine or Dentistry shall be awarded Certificates of Honour, provided they obtain at least seventy-five per cent. of the marks of the Examination.

28. Candidates who fail in more than four subjects in the Primary, or more than five subjects in the Final Examination of the Faculty of Medicine shall be deemed to have failed altogether in the examination. Candidates who fail in not more than four subjects in the Primary, or five subjects in the Final shall be allowed to take these subjects at the supplemental examination, or at the next annual examination. A candidate shall not be given credit for any portion of the examination unless he shall have obtained at least thirty-three per cent. of each paper and fifty per cent. of the total marks of such part of the examination. A candidate who does not complete the examination as above will be required to take the whole examination again.

29. Candidates who fail in the First or Second Examinations may, for the degree of B.C.L., at the discretion of the Examiners, be allowed to take a supplemental examination in the following June, together with the subsequent examination. Those who fail in obtaining fifty per cent. of the total marks of the examination are required to take the whole examination, but those who obtain fifty per cent. of the total, but fail in particular papers, are required to take only those papers in which they have failed.

In all Faculties the Degree Fee shall be paid together with the Fee for the Final Examination.

If a Candidate for any Examination fails to send the notice and pay the fee by the date prescribed in the Calendar, the Registrar may, at his discretion, accept the notice, but he shall in all cases require the payment of an additional fee of one dollar.

A Candidate for the first degree conferred on him by the University in any Faculty may be admitted to such degree in absentia by permission of the Executive Committee on payment of an additional fee of $10. Graduates of the University may always be admitted to any other degree in absentia without additional fee.

Candidates taking the first degree in any Faculty at a Convocation other than the May or October Convocation, must pay a fee of $5 in addition to the ordinary fee.

The annual payments made by Bachelors of Arts to Convocation will be credited in payment of the fee for M.A.

31. Students proposing to present themselves at the Supplemental Examinations in the Divinity Class, Arts or Medicine held in September, shall be required to send notice to that effect to the Registrar, on or before September 1st, and to transmit at the same time the prescribed fee.

Examiners' Fees. 32. The remuneration of Examiners in the Faculty of Music shall be as follows: $5 for each paper set, 20c. for each set of Candidates' paper read, $5 for the Examination of each exercise for Mus. Bac., $7.50 for the Examination of each exercise for Mus. Doc., and $6 for each attendance at the Examinations. The remuneration of Examiners in the Faculties of Divinity and Law shall be $5 for each paper set, and 20c. for each Candidate's papers read. In other cases the scale of remuneration for the Examiners shall be as follows: The minimum shall be $10; the remuneration shall be $20 if the number of papers examined exceed 10, $30 if the number of papers exceed 40, $40 if it exceed 70, $50 if it exceed 100, and $10 more for each additional 50 papers or fraction thereof. The railway fare of Examiners living out of Toronto shall also be paid, when they come to Toronto to conduct Examinations or attend meetings of Examiners, if summoned thereto by the Registrar. Papers for which a shorter time than two hours is allowed are to count as half papers.

The payment made to Examiners under the foregoing rules shall be considered to include $5 for each attendance at meetings of Examiners whether for regular or supplemental Examinations, and if an Examiner is not present at a meeting of Examiners $5 shall be deducted from the payment made to him in respect of each such absence.

Matriculation Examination in Arts. 33. There shall be two Examinations for Matriculation in each year. The first shall be that held by the Department of Education in July, and the second shall be conducted by the University in September on a date to be fixed yearly by the Vice-Chancellor.

34. Students who have passed the Senior Leaving Examination may be allowed by the Executive Committee to count it pro tanto for the Primary Examination, and be permitted to enter the Second year on condition of writing off at the time of the Previous Examination the remaining subjects (if any) of the Primary Examination.

35. Students who have passed the whole or part of the Senior Leaving Examination, and who enter the First year will be required to pass only on such subjects as they have not covered in their Senior Leaving work, and shall be allowed to hold or compete for Scholarships on condition that they cover all the Pass and Honour work in the department in which the Scholarship is given.

36. Candidates in the July Examination who fail in not more than three departments may present themselves for examination in these departments only at the Examination in the September following. The same privilege shall be allowed in the same circumstances, in the succeeding July Examination, to Candidates who have presented themselves for the first time in September.

Matriculation Examination in Medicine. 37. This examination shall begin on the second Friday in the months of March and October.

38. There shall be Honour Courses in the following Departments: (1) Classics, (2) Mathematics, (3) Theology, (4) Mental and Moral Science, (5) Physical and Natural Science, (6) Modern Languages, (7) Modern History, (8) English, (9) Political Science. A Student who declares for any one of these courses shall, after the first year, be exempted from lectures and examinations in all other departments except the Pass subjects in Divinity and Canadian History, on condition that he has obtained a First-Class in the Primary Examination, and has passed a satisfactory Examination at the end of his first year in his honour subjects.

39. Candidates for Honours who shall have claimed exemption from any part of the Final Examination, though they have failed to obtain a Class in Honours, may be granted the Degree of B.A., on the recommendation of the Examiners.

Theological 40. The Honour work of this course shall cover two years, and must be preceded either—

- (a) By the full Classical, or other, Honour Course; or,
- (b) By the first and second years of the General or Pass Arts Course.

In the latter case, and in the case of candidates taking an Honour Course other than the Classical, the Greek and Hebrew of the first two years of the Pass Course must be taken.

Students proposing to take the Theological Honour Course, and desiring Letters Testimonial for Holy Orders, must, before entering upon such course, make application to the College Committee for admission to the Divinity Class, and being admitted shall come under the ordinary regulations of the Divinity Class, in so far as their Arts work may permit, and shall be required to attend lectures and pass examinations in such part of the Divinity Class work as is not covered by the Theological Honour Course. The said lectures and examinations may be taken concurrently with the Theological Honour Course in the case of students who have previously taken some other Honour Course; but all other students shall be required to spend one full additional year in the Divinity Class after the completion of their Theological Honour Course, besides taking, during that Course, such portion of the Divinity Class work as may be prescribed for them.

Licentiate in Theology. 41. Candidates for the degree of Licentiate of Theology may substitute Hebrew for Mathematics in the Primary Examination.

Primary Examination. The names of Students who pass this Examination shall be arranged in three classes, in alphabetical order; the first class consisting of those who shall have obtained at least 60 per cent of the total marks of the Examination, the second of those who shall have obtained 45 per cent., the third of those who have satisfied the Examiners, but have obtained less than 45 per cent.

Members of the Divinity Class will be required to take such Pastoral Work as may from time to time be assigned to them by the Provost.

Degrees in Divinity. 43. Candidates for Degrees in Divinity who are not resident in the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada, must send notice of their intention to present themselves for Examination to Registrar not later than April 1st, specifying, when necessary, the part of the Examination for which they intend to present themselves.

44. The Examinations for Degrees in Divinity shall begin in September on a date to be fixed in each year by the Vice-Chancellor.

Examinations for the Degree of B.C.L. 45. The Examinations in the Faculty of Law shall be held in June, at the same time as the Examinations in Arts.

Degree of D.C.L. 46. The Candidate for this Degree shall be required to compose a Thesis on some legal subject appointed from year to year by the Executive Committee, such Thesis to be approved of by the Examiners in Law at their meeting in June.

Degree of M.D., C.M. 47. The Candidate must have attended for at least thirty-two months the practice of some General Hospital.

48. He must have attended for at least six months the practice of a Lying-in-Hospital, or given satisfactory evidence of having otherwise had equivalent opportunities of obtaining obstetrical knowledge, with certificate of attendance upon at least six cases of labour.

Primary Examination in Medicine. 49. This Examination shall take place at the end of the Second Year.

Final Examination in Medicine. 50. This Examination shall take place at the end of the Fourth Year.

Examination for the Degree of Mus. Bac. 51. These Examinations shall be held in May, beginning on a date to be fixed yearly by the Vice-Chancellor.

52. Candidates for the Degree of Mus. Bac. who present satisfactory evidence of having passed some recognized Examination equivalent to the First Examination in Music, shall be allowed to take the First and Second Examinations on consecutive days.

53. Students of the Toronto Conservatory of Music who have passed the First and Second Examinations for the Diploma of the Conservatory will be exempted from the First Examination in Music, and Students holding the Diploma of the Conservatory will be exempted from the First and Second Examinations in Music.

54. The Candidate must send to the Registrar an original composition for voices on a sacred or secular subject, consisting of four movements at least. These movements shall be (1) a chorus, or solo and chorus, in five part harmony, (2) a solo in cavatina or aria form, (3) a trio or quartette, unaccompanied, and (4) a fugue in four parts; (1), (2), and (4) to have an accompaniment for a string band. The movements may be in any order preferred, and the whole must occupy from fifteen to twenty minutes in performance. This exercise must be approved of by the examiners.

55. Candidates for the Degree of Mus. Bac. must transmit with this exercise the following statutory declaration:

78. The Board of Studies in Dentistry shall consist of five elected members.

79. The Board of Studies in Pharmacy shall consist of five elected members.

80. The elected members of the Boards of Studies shall in the first place be appointed by the Corporation, and vacancies occurring shall afterwards be filled by co-optation.

81. The Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar of the University shall be ex officio members of all Boards of Study.

Quorums of Committees. 82. The following shall be the quorums of the several Standing Committees: of the Land and Finance Committee, three, one of whom must be the Chancellor of the University, the Provost, the Dean of the College, or the Chairman of the Committee; of the Executive Committee, three; of the Committee on Discipline, three; of the Committee on Honorary Degrees, four, and of the College Committee, five.

Regulations respecting fees. 83. The fees for Resident Students shall be $120 per annum for tuition and board in case of Arts Students, and $90 in case of Students of the Divinity Class, and in addition rent for rooms as prescribed from time to time by the Land and Finance Committee; and for non-residents for tuition, $50 per annum; such fees to be paid termially in advance.

The tuition fees of Special Students shall be $1 per term for each lecture per week, the minimum being $3 per term; and any student taking more than six lectures per week paying the full tuition fees.

83. Any Student not having paid his College account within four weeks from the beginning of the term, if a Resident Student, shall not be allowed to remain in College, and, if a non-Resident, shall not be allowed to attend lectures.

84. A Student who, within two weeks from the first day of Term, pays in full his College account, including the fees for the current term, the Steward's account and the fines of previous term (if any), together with any arrears remaining unpaid from previous terms, shall be allowed a discount of ten per cent. on the fees of the current term.

85. No testimonial for orders shall be granted by the College, nor shall any certificate of Matriculation, Examinations passed, or terms kept, be granted by the Registrar, nor any testimonial be given by a Professor to a Graduate or Undergraduate, unless he shall produce a certificate from the Bursar to the effect that all indebtedness to the College and University has been discharged by him.

Duties of Bursar. 86. It shall be the duty of the Bursar to receive and disburse all monies on account of the Corporation, and to keep proper vouchers therefor. He shall make daily deposits of all sums received to the credit of the Corporation in one of the Chartered Banks, to be designated by the Corporation, and shall make all disbursements by cheques on said bank, countersigned by a member of the Finance Committee, to be designated from time to time by that Committee. He shall keep a register of all cheques issued and the name of the party to whose order they are made payable, and such register shall be initialed by the person who shall countersign the cheques at the time of doing so, and shall be produced at each meeting of the Land and Finance Committee. He shall keep a regular set of books in such form as shall be approved by the Corporation, and submit to the Auditors not later than the 6th of each month the cash book, the vouchers relating thereto, and any other books and papers they may desire. He shall prepare and submit to the Land and Finance Committee at each monthly meeting a statement showing the financial position of the College at the end of the previous month; and also statements shewing the amounts in arrears on all securities and to fall due thereon during the succeeding month. He shall also prepare for the Council at the annual general meeting statements of each account and trust of the College, together with a balance sheet to be duly certified by the auditors. He shall keep a complete register of all lands, mortgages, debentures and other securities, and of all valuable papers belonging to the Corporation, and shall deposit all debentures and such other securities, papers and title deeds as the Land and Finance Committee shall direct, with the bankers of the Corporation for safe keeping, and shall furnish the annual meeting of the Corporation lists of the same duly certified by the bankers in whose custody they then are, together with the bankers' certificate of the balance of the bank account at the end of each financial year. He shall prepare and submit from time to time all such statements relating to the affairs of the College as may be asked for by the Corporation, its Committees or its Auditors. He shall keep the property of the Corporation insured in such companies as the Land and Finance Committee shall direct, and shall see that all taxes and rates assessed on the lands are duly paid. He shall see that all buildings and other property of the Corporation are kept in good order and repair. He shall supervise and control the purchase of all supplies, and shall in conjunction with the Provost and Dean superintend all other matters relating to the interior economy of the College, and shall generally take cognizance of and report to the Corporation all matters affecting its pecuniary interests, and shall carry out all directions of the Land and Finance Committee.

87. The security which the Bursar shall furnish to the Corporation may be the fidelity bond of some approved guarantee company in the sum of five thousand dollars, one-half of the premium on which shall be paid by the Corporation.

Duties of Auditors. 88. It shall be the duty of the Auditors to make a monthly audit of the books, accounts and vouchers of the College, and submit the same at each monthly meeting of the Land and Finance Committee. They shall carry forward the audit to the end of each financial year, examine into and vouch for the correctness of the cash, bank balance and securities in the hands of the Bursar, or of the bankers of the Corporation, and certify to the correctness of the statements and balance sheet presented by the Bursar at the annual meeting of the Corporation.

They shall report yearly as to the security furnished by the Bursar. The certificates of the Auditors shall be in such form as the Land and Finance Committee shall from time to time prescribe. They shall at the end of each financial year audit and report on the accounts of the Registrar of the University, and in the event of the Registrar being one of the Auditors, such audit shall be conducted by the other Auditor.

89. All accounts shall be submitted to, and approved by the Finance Committee before payment.

90. A classified statement of accounts, duly audited, shall be privately circulated among the members of the Corporation at least one week before the annual general meeting.

Duties of Secretary. 91. The Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Land and Finance Committee and of the Corporation. He shall give notice of and attend all meetings of the Corporation and its Committees. He shall also keep the minutes of the meetings of these bodies, making marginal notes in the minute book of the Corporation of the various business transacted at each meeting, and also indexing the business of the meetings up to date. He shall also have at each meeting a copy of the Statutes and By-laws corrected up to the date of the meeting, and at the May and October meetings a table of the attendance during the two preceding years of members at the meetings of Corporation.

College Examination at Christmas. 92. A College Examination of each year shall be held at the end of the Michaelmas Term in all the subjects of Lectures of the Term, and all students shall be required to present themselves at the Examination unless excused therefrom by the Provost on account of illness, or for other reasonable cause.

94. Students in Arts (and, mutatis mutandis, Students in Divinity), who fail in any part of the College Examination at Christmas, shall come under the following regulations:—

1. They shall be required to do such extra work during the year, in the subjects in which they have failed, as the examiners in such subjects may require.

2. They shall not be allowed to enter for the University Examination in June without the consent of the College Committee.

3. If admitted to the University Examination in June they shall be required to obtain 40 per cent. in the subjects in which they failed at the Christmas Examination.

4. Students in Honours who fail to obtain the required 40 per cent. in their Honour Department, shall not be allowed to proceed further in the same; but shall be required to take during the remainder of the year such course as may be prescribed for them by the College Committee.

Scholarships. 95. The following scholarships shall be awarded at Matriculation:—

The Wellington Scholarship in Classics of $80 and three years' tuition free.

The Wellington Scholarship in Mathematics of $80 and three years' tuition free.

The Bishop Strachan Scholarship in Classics of $40 and three years' tuition free.

The Burnside Scholarship in Mathematics of $40 and three years' tuition free.

The Dickson Scholarship in Modern Languages of $40 and three years' tuition free.

The Dickson Scholarship in Physical and Natural Science of $40 and three years' tuition free.

The Burnside Scholarship in English, History and Geography of $40 and three years' tuition free.

The Pettit Scholarship in Divinity of $40 and three years' tuition free.

A General Proficiency Scholarship of $100 and three years' tuition free for candidates writing in Victoria, B.C.

The Upper Canada College—Trinity Scholarship of $100 and three years' tuition free, for General Proficiency.

The Wilson Scholarship of $40 and two years' tuition free, for General Proficiency.

The Leonard McLaughlin Scholarship of $100 for Classics.

The F. A. Bethune Scholarship of $60 and three years' tuition free.

The Graduate's Scholarship of $100 and three years' tuition free.

In addition to the above, a Scholarship in Mental and Moral Philosophy shall be awarded at the end of the Second Year, entitling the holder to one year's free tuition, and a Scholarship in Political Science at the end of the First Year, entitling the holder to two years' free tuition.

96. Candidates competing for the scholarships offered at Matriculation, except the Pettit Scholarship, are required to write in the July Examination.

97. The scholarship in any department will be awarded to the candidate who obtains the highest marks in Honours in the department or departments for which the Scholarship is offered, provided that he has passed the Matriculation Examination (except in English Grammar, Arithmetic or Canadian History, if he has obtained exemption in these subjects), of the year in which he is competing, and has been awarded a First-Class in Honours in his department, or, if there be more than one department, a First-Class in Honours in one department and Second-Class in another.

NOTE.—The Bishop Strachan Scholarship in Classics and the Burnside Scholarship in Mathematics will be given to the candidates who obtain the second highest aggregate marks in these departments and comply with the other conditions.

98. In order to hold the scholarships in the Second and Third Years, candidates must retain the positions in their departments which they have won at Matriculation.

NOTE.—A candidate obtaining the Wellington Scholarship in Classics, the Dickson Scholarship in Modern Languages, or that in Physical and Natural Science, must obtain the highest place in the First Class in Honours in his department in order to retain the Scholarship in the Second and Third Years. The same applies to the Bishop Strachan Scholarship in Classics and the Burnside Scholarship in Mathematics, except that the second highest place in the First Class Honours in those departments is required.

99. A candidate obtaining the Burnside Scholarship for English, History and Geography, will be required to obtain the highest place in the First Class in Honours in Modern History or in English in the subsequent years.

100. A candidate obtaining the Pettit Scholarship in Divinity will be required to obtain the highest place in the First Class in Honours in Theology.

101. Should the holder fail to satisfy the above requirements in any year, his scholarship will pass to the student who has so done.

102. The holders of scholarships are ordinarily required to reside in College, but when they reside with their parents or guardians by permission of the Provost, they will be allowed free tuition when such is the whole or part of the emolument of their scholarship.

Jubilee 103. A Jubilee Scholarship of the annual Scholarship. value of $120, tenable for two years, shall be awarded yearly to the most deserving Bachelor of the year, who has obtained at least a second class in Classical or Mathematical Honours. On admission to the Scholarship a bond must be given by the holder binding himself to complete the Divinity Course in Trinity College, and to present himself as a Candidate for Holy Orders, and, failing to do so, to refund to the College such proceeds of the Scholarship as he shall have received.

104. Scholarships vacated through any cause shall be awarded in such manner as shall be recommended by the Executive Committee.

The F. A. Bethune This Scholarship, founded by the Scholarship. trustees of F. A. Bethune Memorial Fund, shall be awarded under the following regulations:—

1. The Scholarship, of the value of $60 and three years' free tuition, shall be open to competition to boys who have passed through the Sixth Form of Trinity College School.

2. The winner of the Scholarship shall be the Candidate who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the Matriculation Examination (the Pass papers ranking at half the value of the Honour papers), provided that he shall have gained First Class Honours in one of the departments, Classics, Mathematics, Modern Languages, English and History, or Science, these departments being counted equal for the purposes of the Scholarship.

3. Every holder of the Scholarship shall be required to reside in College during his entire course. If at any time he ceases to reside he shall forfeit all right to the emoluments of the Scholarship.

4. The money shall be paid in three equal terminal instalments during the First year.

5. To retain the Scholarship during the Second and Third Years the Candidate must obtain First Class Honours in some department of the First and Second Year Examinations respectively.

The Wilson 105. An old friend of the late John Wil-
Scholarship. son, M.A., Rector of Grafton, and Archdeacon of Peterborough, has founded a scholarship in his memory, which will be awarded in July, 1903, and subsequent years under the following regulations:—

1. The Scholarship of the value of $40 and two years' free tuition shall be open to competition to sons of residents in the Counties of Northumberland, Durham, Peterborough, Haliburton and Victoria, and to boys who, for two years have attended any school in these Counties, and shall be awarded for General Proficiency in the subjects of the Matriculation Examination.

2 The winner of the Scholarship shall be the Candidate who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the Matriculation Examination (the Pass papers ranking at half the value of the Honour papers), provided that he shall have obtained First Class Honours in one of the departments, Classics, Mathematics, Modern Languages, English and History, or Science, these departments being counted as equal for the purposes of the Scholarship.

3. Every holder of the Scholarship shall be required to reside during his entire course. If at any time he ceases to reside he shall forfeit all right to the emoluments of the Scholarship.

4. The money shall be paid in three equal terminal instalments during the First Year.

5. To retain the Scholarship during the Second and Third Years, the candidate must obtain First Class Honours in some department of the First and Second Year Examinations respectively.

The Leonard McLaughlin Scholarship. 106. 1. This scholarship has been endowed by Mr. and Mrs. Michael McLaughlin, of Toronto, in memory of their only son, Leonard, who was at the time of his death, December 10th, 1899, an undergraduate of this College and University. As he was a pupil at Upper Canada College from 1890 to 1896, the founders have provided that only pupils of that School shall be eligible for the scholarship. The award will be made by a Board consisting of the Provost of Trinity College and the Principal and the Classical Master of Upper Canada College to such candidate as, without written examination, shews evidence of possessing good Scholarship in Classics, as well as manliness, sense of honour and strong moral character. Failing a suitable candidate in Classics, the Board may in its discretion select one in Modern Languages, though it is not under any obligation to make a selection in any given year.

2. Successful candidates may continue in Trinity College and pursue a course of study in Classics or Modern Languages to the satisfaction of the Board. In case of necessity, to be by it determined, the Board may allow a postponement of the time of terminating the course or an interruption of the same.

3. The emolument of the scholarship consists of the annual income of twenty shares of C. T. R. stock, amounting at present to $100. Half of this sum is paid to successive holders of the scholarship at the end of the Michaelmas term in the First Year, and the other half at the end of the Michaelmas term in the Second Year.

The Nelles Beneficiary. 107. The late Ven. Abraham Nelles of Brantford left $2,000 to the College to be used for the assistance of students in Arts or Theology during their college course. Loans will be made from this fund to be repaid by students after the completion of their college course.

Prizes in the Divinity Class. 108. First Year—General Proficiency Prize of $5.

Second Year—General Proficiency Prize of $5.

Prize for New Testament subjects, $5.

Prize for Old Testament subjects, $5.

Prize for Dogmatics, $5.

Prize for Liturgics, $5.

Organist Scholarship. 109. There shall be an Organist Scholarship of the value of $60 per annum, to be held during the current Academical Year, and to be awarded every Michaelmas Term by the Executive Committee.

Cooper 110. The holders of the Cooper Exhibitions Exhibition which by the will of the founder is in the gift of the Bishop of Toronto, must be Matriculated Students of Trinity College, not holding a scholarship, who have passed their University and College Examinations at the regular times, and the exhibition shall be forfeited if a holder fails to keep a term under the provisions of the University Statutes, Chap. III., or fails to pass any Examination at the regular time. Caeteris paribus the sons of clergymen will be preferred.

Talbot 111. The interest on the sum of $4,000 left Exhibitions. for Divinity Exhibitions by the late John Talbot, Esq., of Cartwright, shall be paid to any Exhibitioner who shall be nominated by the Executive Committee, from members of the Divinity Class, residing in the College building. The conditions for holding these Exhibitions shall be the same as those for the Cooper Exhibitions.

Palmer 112. This Exhibition of $50 shall be awarded Exhibition. in the same manner and under the same rules as the Talbot Exhibitions.

Bursaries. 113. There shall be five Bursaries of the annual value of $50 to be granted by the Executive Committee to such Matriculated Students as shall have given satisfactory evidence that they cannot, without the aid thus afforded, obtain their education in the University. Caeteris paribus preference shall be given to the sons of clergymen. The conditions of holding a Bursary shall be the same as those for the Cooper Exhibitions.

Synod 114. The Provost shall send a report at the Exhibitions. end of each Academical Year to the Chairman of the Divinity Students' Fund of a Diocese which has granted an Exhibition to any Student, advising as to whether, in view of such Student's general conduct and progress in his studies, it is desirable that such Exhibition should be continued.

115. These Scholarships, Exhibitions and Bursaries shall be held during good behaviour, with the further condition in the case of Scholarships in Arts, that the holder thereof shall attend Honour Lectures in the department in which he has taken the Scholarship, as in such other department as the Executive Committee may sanction, and satisfy the Professors in such Lectures.

The holder of a Scholarship shall forfeit it if he fails to keep a term under the provisions of University Statutes, Chap. III., or fails to pass any examination at the regular time.

Prince of Wales 116. Two prizes of $18 each shall be awarded annually in the Final Examination for B.A., to the Students who obtain the highest place in the First Class in Classical and Mathematical Honours respectively.
